

DEMOCRAT AND SENTINEL.

LOCAL ITEMS.

A GHOST.—Some days back our citizens were excited by a report that, in the silent hours of night, a ghost or something had been seen walking...

Excitement ran high. Children avoided the darkness, and women when left alone almost fainted. Some of our masculine citizens armed themselves and determined to ascertain if real flesh and blood composed it.

Many were the tales its appearance gave rise to; and there was "scarcely a nook in a' the land" but held its kindred spirit.

Everybody who has visited or resided in Ebsensburg knows something about the ruined settlement Beulah. Nothing now remains of it but old walls, old fields, and an old graveyard.

Some years ago I had been roaming over the surrounding hills in search of game, and, like the larger portion of sportsmen, had been unsuccessful.

The position of affairs remains unchanged, as regards the prospect of hostilities. The Declaration of War was to be read in all the Mosques, on the 7th ult. It was not expected that hostilities would commence before the 25th.

Reschid Pacha's son was the bearer of the summons to Prince Gorchakoff. He also conveyed to Omar definite instructions how to act in event of the Russians refusing to leave the territories.

The following is a translation of OMER PASHA'S LETTER TO GORCHAKOFF. "MONSIEUR LE GENERAL: Il est by the order of my Government that I have the honor to address this letter to your Excellency.

"While the Sublime Porte has exhausted all means of conciliation to maintain at once peace and its own independence, the Court of Russia has not ceased to raise difficulties in the way of any such settlement, and has ended with the violation of treaties—involving the two Principalities of Moldavia and Wallachia, integral parts of the Ottoman Empire.

"True to its pacific system, the Porte, instead of exercising the right to make reprisals, confined itself even then to protesting, and did not deviate from the way that might lead to an arrangement.

"Russia, on the contrary, far from evincing corresponding sentiment, has ended by rejecting the proposals recommended by the august courts—proposals which were alike necessary to the honor and to the security of the Porte.

"There only remains to the latter the indispensable necessity of war. But as the invasion of the Principalities and the violation of treaties which have attended it, are the veritable causes of war, the Sublime Porte, as a last expression of its pacific sentiments, proposes to your Excellency, by my intervention, the evacuation of the two Provinces, and grants for your decision a term of fifteen days, to date from the receipt of this letter.

"If within this interval a negative answer shall reach me from your Excellency, the commencement of hostilities will be the natural consequence.

"While I have the honor to make the intimation to your Excellency, I embrace the opportunity to offer the assurance of my high esteem. (Signed.) Omer."

"I have never before told this tale, for I knew that men would call it a creature of the imagination. Even now I would not have my name connected with it."

Such, reader, is the tale of the troubled spirit of Beulah. We have written it as we heard it, and for its verity we cannot vouch. It may have been a dream or the workings of the imagination of the narrator.

PLANK ROAD ELECTION.—At the election held in this place on last Monday, the following excellent Board of Officers of the Ebsensburg and Susquehanna Plank Road, were chosen for the ensuing year: President, George J. Rodgers; Managers, Rev. P. H. Lempe, Ezekiel Hughes, Johnston Moore, William Kittel, James Myers; Treasurer, Edward Shoemaker.

THE WEATHER.—Winter seems to have fairly set in. The ground is covered with snow, and the air cold. Ere long we can expect sleighing, and then all will go well as all kinds of bells can make it.

"BLESSED IS HE WHO GIVES."—Yes, and blessed is he who receives. We thought so as we regaled ourselves on an excellent bunch of cellery presented us by our enterprising citizen, R. L. Johnston, Esq. It was a "gem," certainly, and as a specimen of the productions of an Ebsensburg garden cannot be beaten.

NEW HOTEL.—Mr. Jno. Blair has taken the house formerly kept by Mrs. Mary O. Evans, as a boarding house, and opened a Hotel. This business site Mr. Blair to a "T," as he is just the kind of a man to make a good Landlord.

NEW ROAD TO LORETO.—The viewers on the new township road to Loreto report a route of built-up miles in length and a grade nowhere exceeding three degrees. This will make an easy and excellent road. The old road is six miles long, and the hills almost perpendicular.

DEATH OF A CAMBRIAN IN CALIFORNIA.—We regret to learn the death of Daniel Huber, of Johnston, who was shot on the American River, in California, on the 16th of September, last. We have not learned the particulars of his death. He leaves a widow, and two children.—Allegan.

Late and Important from California.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6, 1853. The steamship Daniel Webster has arrived at the South-west Pass, with advices to the 16th October—a fortnight later.

The Webster brings one hundred and seventy passengers, and fifty thousand dollars in gold, received by the steamer Sierra Nevada from San Francisco on the 16th. The Golden Gate and Uncle Sam sailed on the same day for Panama.

The passage was made between San Francisco and New Orleans in twenty days. The city Sonora was destroyed by fire Oct. 3, and the loss of property will amount to a million and a half of dollars.

The mining news is encouraging. John Mitchell, the Irish patriot, who recently escaped from Australia, arrived safely with his family at San Francisco on the 12th of October. He last came from the Sandwich Islands.

A public dinner has been tendered to John Mitchell, before his departure for New York, which was accepted. The Supreme Court of California has made an important decision, declaring valid all grants made in accordance with the Mexican law.

The effect of this will be to oust hundreds from lots held by them for years, and restore them to the original grantees. It is considered a death-blow to the squatters, and will cause millions of property to change hands by the mere operation of law.

The magnetic telegraph is working from San Jose to San Francisco. Murders and outrages are occurring throughout the State to an alarming extent.

The old city government of San Francisco had retired, after contesting the election and the new one been finally organized. The improvements in the city were progressing at a wonderful rate.

Bigher's majority throughout the State is only eighteen hundred and five votes. From Sandwich Island the news is highly important. Dr. Judd had been removed from the office of Minister of Finance, and Elisha H. Allen, late U. S. Consul, appointed in his place.

A decided step had been taken towards annexation to the United States. The French and British Consuls had protested to the King against such an act, and the American Commissioners had replied in a firm but dignified manner. This movement had caused the greatest excitement in the Island.
